

GEF-Satoyama Subgrantee Highlights Report

Organization Name:	IMPECT
Country:	Thailand
Reporting Quarter:	FY17 Q4 (April to June 2017)
Person submitting Report:	Prasert Trakansuphakon

<Highlight 1>: PI

2.1.1 Activity 1:

Community GIS survey on traditional customary laws and regulation as basis to be applied in environment curriculum and in practice.

All 3 communities, we are working on rechecking data etc. process and together do the coordination with local authority to involve for acknowledge the working on final process of GIS mapping

Community GIS, ©IMPECT/Surachai Thaweeporncharern

<Highlight 2>:

2.1.3 Activity 1: Monitoring teams are established in each community (included men, women and youth) to monitor and take action to increase diversity of plants and NTFPs useful for food security and for wildlife.

Meeting for establishing monitoring teams already finished, the monitoring team included men women and youth. But monitoring activities will start formally soon, but non-formal in everyday life already started based on everyday life observation and take note in the same time

Monitoring, ©IMPECT/Boonsri Chalakanok

<Highlight 3>:

3.1.2 Activity 1

Environment curriculum already compiled, now it is a process of designing and rechecking, editing the content before publishing curriculum.

Environment curriculum, ©IMPECT/Boonsri Chalakanon

<Highlight 4>:

4.1.2 Activity 1:

At least 2 communities Mae Yod and Mae Umpai increasing their varieties of plants in the RF field both species and numbers. But Mae Tae Khee even their rotational farming is not mainstream implemented anymore because of the long history of forcing to stop RF but they are aware on to do increase the variety of seeds and plants from RF by grew them in their garden and kitchen garden for keep going these variety species.

Bee keeping have developed and at least two communities have implemented and start have some of honey products.

Honey Harvesting, ©IMPECT/Chalit Suphaphak

Chilly pounding, ©IMPECT/Nutdanai Trakansuphakon

Finished rice seasoning powder, ©IMPECT/Nutdanai Trakansuphakon

<Highlight 5>:

5.1.1 and 5.1.2

Compile and produce information and documentation to effectively communicate Karen natural resource management to the outside world through diverse media (video, internet, and social media). and Distribute the information to access main stream media

Please add a summary/explanation

The event in Princess Sirin thorn Anthropology Center in Bangkok on exhibition tasting products from RF and workshop for Redefine Rotational Farming and the challenge...there are academics, students, business and public attend and involve the activities, and many media groups also have involved.

Many events have organized in Bangkok and surround Bangkok and Chiang Mai, Chiangrai. Collaboration organize event with Tourism Authority of Thailand (TOT), well-known Chefs network, well known food program in TV (Thai PBS) these agencies have involved e.g. Amazing organic food, local products from RF, honey, tea and coffee from our target areas have promoted and sold.

©IMPECT/Boonsri Chalakanok